LINE OF MARCH

To Clean Streets. The streets themselves will be carefully cleaned. This matter was taken up at a meeting of the citizens committee on streets, held last night. The chairman of this committee is Mr. J. R. Gormain of this committee is Mr. J. R. Gordon. Mr. W. S. Crenshaw was elected secretary. A sub-committee, with Mr.
James N. Boyd as chairman, was appointed to confer with the police authorities with reference to the regulations to be made for handling the crowds. Another sub-committee, of which Mr. T.

M. Worthers is chairman, will consider other sub-committee, of which Mr. T. M. Wortham is chairman, will consult with the water department concerning the sprinkling and washing of the streets. A third sub-committee will hold a similar conterence with the Street Cleaning Department with reference to its share in the work of making of Richmond for the day a "spotless town." Dr. J. N. Upshur is chairman of this committee.

The entire street committee was divided The entire street committee was divided into a series of sub-committees, which will interview the merchanis along the line of march with the idea of clearing the streets of all obstractions. As the Fresident drives by the crowds will be packed on the sidewalks, which cannot be comfortably done, unless all store boxes and show cases are removed and the sidewalks of conditions. all delivery of goods is suspended for the time being. The committee, at its meeting last night took occasion to make, through the newspapers of the city, and cornest appeal to the merchants to co-operate heartly with it in this effort to keep the sidewalks clear.

Programme for the Day. The entire programme for the day has not yet been definitely fixed as to the precise time of the various features making up the celebration, but roughly it may be outlined as follows:

Formed—Work Progressing.
The work of the citizens' committees who are co-operating with the municipal government in arranging the details for the reception to President Roosevelt, continues to progress with constantly increasing evidence of the generous interest and support of the people at large. Every man to whom has been assigned some portion of this task, which is one of the most gigantic ever undertaken here, is workling with a will, and with the proper direction of this spirit, now assured, there is every reason to expect that the celebration will celipse anything of its kind that has gone before in all the history of the State.

One of the most notable features of the parade will be a Gentlemen's Escort of parade will be a Gentlemen's Escort of fifty or more prominent citizens, who will act as guard of honor to Mr. Roose velt, and who will be in constant attendveit, and who will be in constant attendance upon the President during every moment of his stay in Richmond. Mr. Wyndham R. Meredith is chairman of this committee and has selected as members of the escort the gentlemen whose names are given below.

The escort will meet the President upon his arrival at the Main Street station and will probably take positions immediately before and behind the carriage that will carry Mr. Roosevelt. From that time until the departure of the party at 7 P. M. the committee will be at Comparatively little change characterized the yellow fever situation in New Orleans to-day, both the new cases and deaths striking the daily average for the past week.

A second charge against Dr. Szabary for failing to report a fever case was made to-day. Mrs. Duffy's home on Stroch Avenue is said to have had a case for five days, under Dr. Szabary's treatment, which had not been reported to the authorities. The Marine Hespital service is no longer printing the names of the doctors who report cases, the physicians requesting that the system be discontinued. Public criticism of the reporting of cases that turned out to be other than yellow fever is believed to be responsible for the objections of the doctors.

To-day's report shows little change in the fever situation. One of the new cases is the British Vice-Consul, Frederick Bonar, who is in a very dangerous condition. Fears are entertained for his recovery.

One of the deaths was that of a seaman on the Norwegian bark Cosmos.

While the outlook is anything but bright, Dr. Porter and the health officials are putting up a strong fight, and have not expressed any discouragement over the situation. They are meting with some opposition on the part of a certain class of citizens who do not seem to be impressed with the danger of the situation. Fumigration and screening continues despite this opposition.

SUFFOLK. VA. October 6.—The chairmanship muddle in Southampton county has seemingly been further complicated by a letter from State Chairman Ellyson, which the Moyler supporters construe as deciding that retiring chairman, J. Peter Holland, had no authority to decide the tie of 13 to 13 between J. Emmet Moyler and Joseph N. Musgrave, former assembly kielegate. Helland voted for Musgrave.

Musgrave in an interview to-night said that Ellyson's letter was evasive, but it recited precedents of the National Committee to show that a temporary chairman should have been chosen.

Mr. Musgrave says that the Moyler men have a move on foot to call another committee meeting, and he declares further that if there be another meeting he is going to occupy the chair. He says that the side hopes to get some of his supporters to sign a call in order to get a majority.

It was reported to-night that a formal appeal is being prepared by counsel.

PRINTERS MEET.

Be Held To-Morrow Afternoon.

There will be a meeting of the local Typographical Union to-morrow afternoon. Business of importance to all of the members is to be attended to, and it is imperative that there be a large turnout of the mem.

Just what steps will be taken by the union with regard to the strike now on is not known. Members of the union are inclined to keep their own counsel about the business to be transacted.

The strike situation remains unchanged. Each side is holding out firmly and there does not seem to be any disposition to give in either by the strikers or by members of the Typothetiae. Reports to the contrary, notwithstanding there appears to be an undercurrent of opinion that a crisis will be reached this month, about the fifteenth.

LYNCHBURG, VA., October 6.—Thomas P. Dixon's "The Clansman" was prosented at the Academy of Music here to-night before what was probably the largest audience that ever crowded into a local theatre. With a seating capacity of about 1,400, there were nearly two thousand persons in the building, while more than five hundred were turned away after the management feared to sell more standing room, and hundreds knowing the condition did not go to the academy that would have been there if they could have gained entrance.

Men and women forgot their dignity after the third act, and shouted for Mr. Dixon for a speech. When he appeared before the curtain, he received an ovation such as has never been seen here biore. As he spoke he broused the audience, and the people fairly howled their sanction of the short speech in mude.
